

"Love for History and Art, passion for Wine"

The strong motivations that pushed Nikos Lazaridis to create one of the leading wineries in Greece.

NICO LAZARIDI Winery gave another dimension to the world of Greek wine, leading the way a combination of all the senses and the creation of a complete experience. Inside the winery, the famous "Magic Mountain Gallery" was created, hosting the works of all the artists who created the labels of the iconic brand. But Château Lazaridi's public areas are filled with works of art: paintings and sculptures, in an eternal dialogue between wine, brush and chisel.

NICO LAZARIDI OWN TWO WINERIES;

- THE CHATEAU NICO LAZARIDI Winery in Drama

The climate in Drama is Mesothermic, Mediterranean, and dry according to the season. The vines are protected by the sheltering mountains, Falakro Mt., Paggaios Mt., and Menikion Mt.

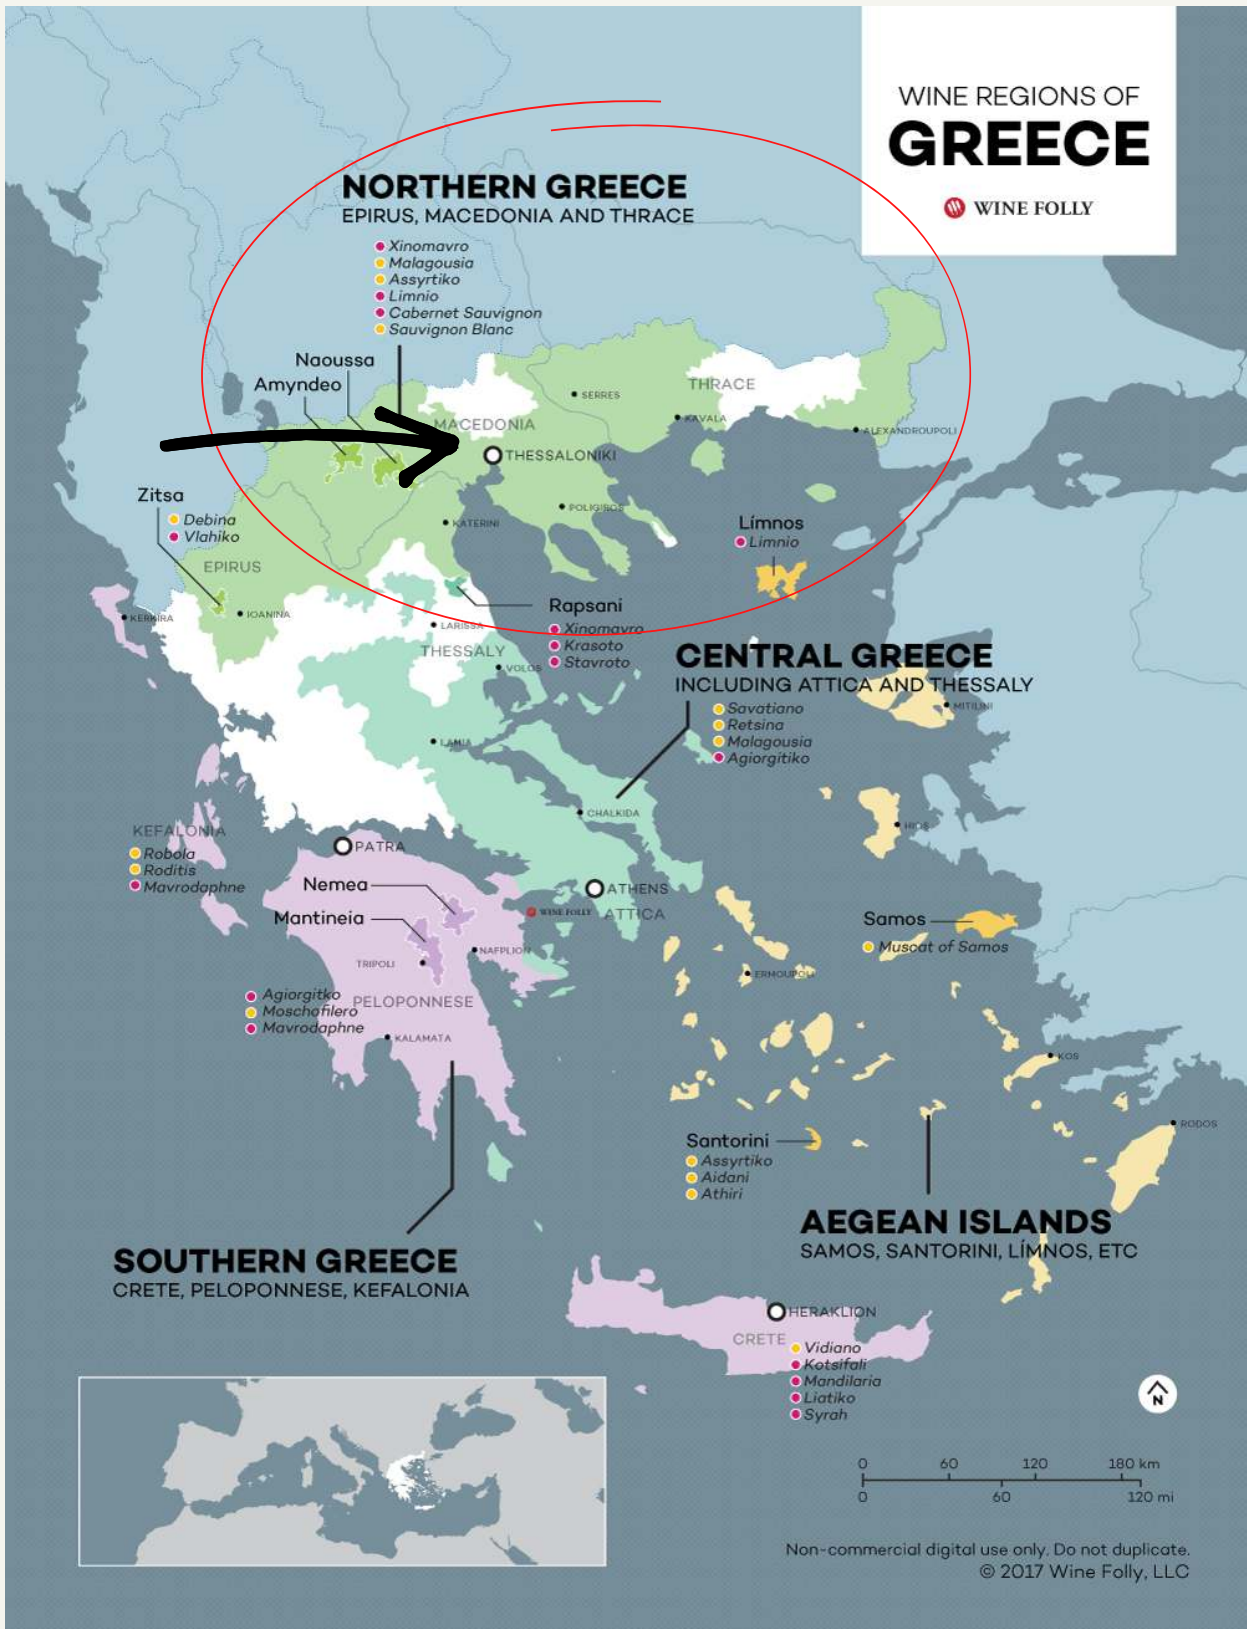

- The MACKEDON Winery in Kavala

Stands in architectural harmony with the soil inclination and the natural character of the region. The climate is Mediterranean temperate with cold winters and warm summers.
