

History Test :- Lesson NO 5, 7.

Q. 1 fill ups

- 1] The first English newspaper in India was started by James Augustus Hickey
- 2] The wooden dolls made in Maharashtra are known as Thakri
- 3] The ancient event of olympic competitions used to be held at olympic, Greece.
- 4] Television is a audio-visual medium.

Q. 2 write notes on :-

i Sports and movies.

Ans] The Process of making a movie is a deep study of the Particular period of the movies, story, language, dressing style, social life, etc.

2] Recently some movies of sports and biography of players have been released in Hindi and English. For instance, the films Mary Kom and Dangal.

3] Mary Kom is the first Indian female boxer to participate in the olympics and to win a bronze medal.

Q.3 Give reasons.

- 1] Newspapers while providing fresh news to its readers need to unfold the background of an event.
- 2] There was an event while reporting news in detail, reporters try to compare it with parallel events, which happened in the past.
- 3] In order to be able to publish issue to commemorate the occasion, one needs to review history.

2] There was an event of inauthentic information appearing in a print in Germany.

- 1] A German weekly magazine had purchased a number of so called hand-written diaries of Adolf Hitler and sold them to various publications.
- 2] Later those diaries were proved to be forged. So any information received through mass media needs to be received 'critically'.

Q.4 Answer the following

- 1] The speeches delivered each year by all prime ministers of India on 15th August are preserved in the form of recordings in the form of recordings by Akashvani.
- 2] Akashvani invites historians as experts for discussions on various occasions such as the anniversaries of birth and death of national leaders, anniversary of historical events, etc.
- 3] Programmes like 'on this day in history' are also an <sup>integral</sup> part of the daily programme of Akashvani.
- 4] So history is essential in planning radio programmes.

Q.5

Ans] To play is a natural instinct of human being. Hence, the history of sports begins with the origin of mankind.

- 1) Various games are being played since the beginning of civilization.
- 2) Hunting was indeed a way indeed a way of obtaining food for the ancient people but it was also looked upon as a game and entertainment.
- 3) The ancient Indian literature and epics mention various games such as games of dice (dyut), wrestling, horse and chariot races and chess.